MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

25X1 SUBJECT: Debriefing of House Staffer Jack Keliher on China

25X1 1. On 27 September 1984, Jack Keliher, a member of 25X1 Rep. Dave McCurdy's (D., OK) personal staff, was debriefed
25X1 at his request on his trip to China in August 1984. [redacted]
25X1 [redacted] the DI/Office of East Asian 25X1 Analysis conducted the debriefing which took place in 25X1 Room 313 Cannon House Office Building at 1400. [redacted]

25X1 2. The debriefing was not of significant intelligence
25X1 value. Mr. Keliher, a retired U.S. Army Colonel, began by 25X1 providing information on his personal and professional
25X1 background. He then explained the mechanics of setting up a
25X1 trip which was sponsored by the Beijing-based Association
25X1 for Understanding China. The bulk of the session focused on 25X1 Mr. Keliher's activities in China--whom he met, where he 25X1 travelled--and his impressions of the outlook for Chinese
25X1 foreign policy. The analysts asked a few questions about
25X1 Chinese personalities and viewed several dozen photographs
25X1 taken by Mr. Keliher. No follow-up is anticipated. [redacted]
